Greetings,

August 2013

August was a fairly quiet month, but still extremely busy with all the day to day things that go on. However, there are no major events to report.

Adam and Jennifer Hayes have been busy settling in this month. They were able to setup their post box address and bank account; they had their first driving lesson, lots of shopping, and riding along with us and getting used to the routine.

Our friend Michael came over one evening and held a movie night with the children. We made a video of the children jumping around to some music. Here is the link if you'd like to watch:

We had three more birthdays this month, Mama Maria, Lucky turned 4 and we had a big party for Paul's birthday.

Mama maria turned in her resignation. She wanted to spend more time with her own children. She will be missed. Mama Kedibone has arrived to replace her, and she is settling in and getting to know the routine and the children.

Our volunteers, Alexis and Breanne left us early this month. We really enjoyed having them, and I'm sure they will return someday. Our children have that affect on people.

Teyani recently had a quarterly followup in regards to his eye lesion. The doctor reports there has been no change, which is good news.

Prayer requests: God's guidance as we settle in with the Hayes family and divide up responsibilities. The Hayes being successful in getting their South African driver's licenses. Good progress for us as we get ready for furlough. Teyani's eye lesion. Short and long term volunteers. Possible health issue for Micky

Praises: Hayes family is making good progress as they settle in. Local interests in The Fold continue to increase.

God bless,
Paul and Micky Prince
