Greetings,

September 2015

For the most part things have been going well at The Fold. The du Plessis family and Rosinah have all settled in and working hard. But we have been having issues with health this month. Tebogo (Zuma) decided to take a flying leap off of the swing. He's now in a cast. They weren't sure anything was broken, but put him in a cast for two weeks and then we'll redo the x-rays. Then Philip came down with shingles, and a few days later Retha fell hard and broke her knee cap. She is now in a cast for a month. At least she managed to pass her driving test before that happened.

For our USA friends, we will be at the missionary convention in Richmond VA from 29 Oct – 1 Nov. We will be in St Louis for a trivia night fund raiser on 7 November. And a lunch with auction at Cedar Ridge Christian Church, Broken Arrow, OK on 15 November. There will also be a fund raiser on 1 December at El Chico's in Broken Arrow, OK. If you would like to attend any of these events, contact us through e-mail or facebook. When we arrive in Richmond we will get a cell phone and post the number on facebook.

Birthdays this month were Teyani (8), and mama Kedibone. Mama's birthday was extra special because we had friends join us and they brought a pizza party for the kids.

We were supposed to get our certificate from the social development department by the second week of this month. As of this date, we have still not seen it. We were told that we are approved with conditions. This means we have to meet whatever conditions are on the certificate to continue to operate. But until we have the certificate in hand, we cannot move forward.

Jennifer Hayes had surgery for colon cancer. It went well. The doctor said they got all the cancer and tests show it didn't spread. No chemo necessary, just keep an eye on things for the next few years.

Donations & correspondence can be sent to the following address: 200 Solley Dr, Winchester, MO 63021
Our South African address: P.O. Box 1265 Vaalwater 0530 South Africa

Rosinah has been doing a great job with the preschool/crèche and grade R/kindergarten. The children are loving it and the two small ones are just soaking up all the knowledge like little sponges.

If you plan to do any on-line Christmas shopping, please go through the Goodsearch webpage. Don't forget many stores have on-line purchasing options and it's amazing how many of those give to charities through www.goodsearch.com. Just type in "Prince Ministry in South Africa" for the "WHO DO YOU GOODSEARCH FOR?", hit enter and look further down the page for the "Goodshop" section. You'll find quite a list of stores that give a percentage of your purchase to the charity of your choice. The ministry will put that money to good use, and it doesn't cost you anything. As an alternative to going through the goodsearch website, you can go to our website www.princeministry.org and download the goodsearch toolbar. When you have our toolbar on your computer, it will automatically register any on-line shopping you do. While you're at our website, please notice we also have links to a grocery coupon site and a magazine ordering website. These all help our cause, and it doesn't cost you anything. If you'd like to make a donation in someone else's name, we have Christmas cards made especially for the Fold for donations made in another person's name. Please don't forget to use the Goodsearch search engine. It earns us a penny every time you use it. Please use it year round, not just the holidays. If you prefer to do your shopping through Amazon, please use this link: <https://smile.amazon.com> and put in Prince Ministry in South Africa as the charity you want to support.

Prayer requests: Du Plessis family with shingles and broken knee cap. Jennifer Hayes healing from surgery. Receipt of our registration from the social welfare Department. Teyani's eye lesion. Du Plessis fund raising. Short and long term volunteers. Additional missionaries to meet current needs at The Fold, especially teachers. Protection and stability for The Fold children.

Praises: Du Plessis family has settled in well. We can go on furlough this year. We have started our own crèche/preschool and it is going well. The local interests in The Fold continue to increase. Donations towards our travel expenses.

God bless,
Paul and Micky Prince
