

Greetings,

My name is Jim Walter, and on behalf of everyone at The Fold Children's Home I want to thank you for your interest in this great work. I would especially like to thank those who have given to The Fold over the years. Your sacrificial gifts are making a significant difference in the lives of the most vulnerable and at risk children in South Africa.

As I'm sure you know The Fold founders, Micky and Paul Prince, have moved back to the US due to health issues. Micky and Paul also brought on a US charity, New Road Missions. By combining forces with oversight, management, communication, donor development and donor appreciation we hope to assure The Fold's longevity and future success. As the founder and president of New Road Missions I am honored to build on the firm foundation laid by Micky and Paul. We are securing their legacy by continuing with the same vision and purpose they established. We will be expanding the facilities so we can rescue even more children from their dire circumstances. Micky and Paul continue to stay involved with their new roles here in the US with fund raising, donor support, communication/newsletters, and consultation. We speak every week and it has been my privilege to become close friends with them.

Going forward you will receive communication from New Road Missions as we move into a new era of donor appreciation, communication and engagement. We want to make sure you stay informed about all the activities and growth happening at The Fold. You will also hear about the other charity we oversee in South Africa called "FASA". This is a ministry to the youth of the same area, and in fact FASA works closely with The Fold. The youth from FASA visit the children at The Fold often to help with church services, repair and maintenance projects and to play with the kids.

You can keep up to date as things develop by checking out our website <https://www.newroadmissions.org> and our Facebook and Instagram pages. We encourage you to ask any questions you may have by emailing us at admin@newroadmissions.org

We would like to thank all those who have given so much of your time, effort and resources to The Fold. Your contributions have made this exciting development possible. We encourage you to continue with us as God grows both these ministries to expand His kingdom and impact the kids and youth of South Africa with the hope of Jesus.
