

Greetings,

November 2024

New Road Missions has an end of year financial campaign going on. They've sent out multiple videos. The goal was $60,000 towards the building campaign for next year. I can tell you that in less than 3 weeks they met their goal. God is so good, and so are all the people who support the Fold. I've included 3 links for the last 3 videos that were sent out. The third one was the cutest. Hopefully you can access them below. Click on the pictures and the video will pop up. New Road Missions gets to continue to fulfill God's amazing vision of bringing hope to children in South Africa.

But they aren't finished yet. The building projects for next year are covered, but the fund raising continues for the daily expenses. They are looking for new monthly donors through child sponsorships and one time donations towards general expenses. The Fold is looking to grow in the near future. We need more teachers for the school.

Birthdays this month were Moloko (9) and Priviledge (10). The kitchen staff at Kaingo game farm do an amazing job with the cakes they donate.

The last few days of this month will be full of activities. They are having the annual Christmas party and two days later will be the end of school year graduation ceremonies. The roof of the Life Center was installed just in time for the event. Unfortunately the cement floor did not happen, but the dirt floor is firmly packed and will do. This will be the first event to happen at the Life center. Can't wait to see the pictures and share them with you next month. Happy Thanksgiving to you all, and Merry Christmas.

We look forward to the future and pray for the children who will be helped. If you would like to volunteer at The Fold, please contact Jim Walter. His contact information is listed at the bottom of the first page of this newsletter. Groups are especially encouraged to come, there are lots of projects in the works, and help is needed. God Bless,
